

My Stupid Tattoo

Say what do I do with this stupid tattoo
Of a heart on my neck that says "Suzy"
It's as blue as the mold on a cheese that's too old
What a dipstick won't do for a floozie

I thought she was cool, funky, hip and old school
I was blind as a bat in a blizzard
I said, "what the heck," and I inked-up my neck
Now I looked like a lopsided lizard

CHORUS

Dumb fads...they come and they go
Like the wind and the rain and the weather
I shoulda slipped the ditzy thing a mood ring
Her name's gonna stain me forever

That tart broke my heart when she said we must part
Seems the dude who tattooed me replaced me
That pin pecking jerk did his home wrecking work
While he smiled, he defiled and defaced me
Hey, life ain't so bad...I refuse to be sad
Got a new doll who's really a doozie
Though her handle is "Holly" she's never jolly
When she views my tattoo that says "Suzy"

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE

I peed away cash on ludicrous trash
Like pet rocks and other cheap rubble
Much worse than all that this hideous tatt
Ain't done nothing but buy me deep trouble

REPEAT CHORUS

Words and Music by
Damon Leigh, Lean Umbers Publishing (ASCAP)
David Siebels, Sea Bells Music (ASCAP)
© Spoons Music Corporation (ASCAP) Adm by Sweet On Top/Peer Music.